

BARDEHLE PAGENBERG Team

Nobuchika Mamine
LL.M.

Attorney-at-Law (Rechtsanwalt), Certified IP Lawyer, UPC Representative, Senior Associate

Location Munich

Languages: German, English, Japanese

+49 89 928 05-0

nobuchika.mamine@bardehle.de

Nobuchika Mamine is an attorney-at-law specialized in national and cross-border patent litigation at the UPC. He advises and represents in all technology fields, with a focus on the chemical and telecommunications sectors. Nobuchika Mamine advises on IP-related contracts, such as license and R&D agreements, and is well versed in matters of competition law.

With over 15 years of experience, he has a strong commitment to achieving the best business-oriented solutions.

Legal Areas

Rei vindicatio

Licensing & Technology Transfer

Patent Litigation

Employee Inventions

Oppositions and Nullity

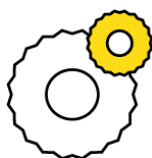

Due Diligence

Antitrust Law

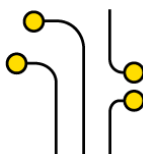

Trade Secrets

Unified Patent Court

Industries

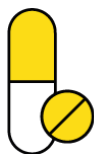

Mechanical Engineering

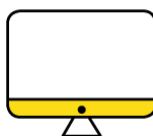

Electrical Engineering

Medical Devices

Chemistry, Pharma & Life Sciences

Software, IT & Computer Technology

Telecommunications

Food

Automotive

Publications

Various publications in professional journals such as GRUR, GRUR-Prax, Tokkyo News

Lectures & Seminars

Regular lectures and seminars, particularly at US and Japanese academic institutions and associations

Memberships

Munich Bar Association (Rechtsanwaltskammer München), GRUR, LES, DJJV

Curriculum Vitae

2024 - today	Patent Litigator at BARDEHLE PAGENBERG, Munich, German
2024	Registered as UPC Representative and admitted as Certified IP Lawyer
2022 - 2024	IP Litigator at Meissner Bolte, Munich
2018 - 2022	Patent Litigator at Hoffmann Eitle, Munich
2016 - 2018	Lecturer at the Tokyo University of Science
2005 - 2018	Corporate lawyer at Sonderhoff & Einsel, Tokyo, Japan
2005	Licensed to practice as German attorney-at-law Legal clerk at the Higher Regional Court Berlin (Kammergericht) Student at the University of Tokyo, Graduate School of Law and Politics (LL.M.) Student at the Humboldt University zu Berlin, Faculty of Law