Anna Giedke specializes in patent infringement proceedings before the UPC and national courts and is experienced with patent-related antitrust and contractual matters.

Anna represents leading international and national companies (plaintiffs and defendants) in mostly multi-national cases featuring parallel proceedings in the U.S., Asia, or the European Union.

Her technological focus is multifaceted, covering semiconductor technology, telecommunications, information and computer technology, medical engineering, different types of consumer products (mechanical, hygiene or electronic), life sciences and the automotive industry as a whole (connected cars, electric vehicles). With regard to her contractual practice, Anna focuses on FRAND negotiations, R&D and TT contract design and contract management, and the relevant (EU) antitrust laws.
